About Us

Welcome to the Executive Masters in interior Design (EMID) Program at Obafemi Awolowo University, Ile-Ife, Nigeria, an innovative hybrid and online program designed for the modern designer. We are the premier Interior Design Program in the country, dedicated to nurturing the next generation of visionary designers. Our program offers a flexible and comprehensive approach to interior design education, combining the convenience of online learning with the richness of hands-on experiences.

Our Vision

At EMID, we believe in the power of design to transform spaces and lives. Our vision is to produce designers who excel in a global and digitally connected world. We aim to cultivate a community of creative and forward-thinking professionals who are equipped to lead and innovate in the field of interior design. We are committed to shaping the future of interior design in Nigeria and globally by inspiring our students to push boundaries and set new standards in the industry.

What our Students Say

A great program with world-class curriculums for every creative individual/design professional. You'd be engaged by great tutors from different continents of the world in very impactful learning sessions.

The MID program exceeded my expectations in every way. The opportunities for peer networking, international practice exposure, and learning from renowned experts and lecturers were invaluable. Honestly, many of us feel like we got an incredible deal – the value far surpassed the cost. I highly recommend this program to any ambitious interior designer looking to elevate their skills and boost their earning potential. It's a game-changer for those serious about leveling up and charging their worth.

What our Students Says

The top 3 things I love about the course are; it is evenly paced - you will be able to keep up in spite of a busy schedule; the lecturers are very helpful and accessible - they always look out that we are faring well (this is new for me 😊), and finally, I get to network with amazing and talented people in the same field. That's real value for money. For the price, you won't get a course like this anywhere else.

This course truly came at the time I needed it the most. With a background in architecture and a deep passion for this particular sphere, I am proud to say I took this journey. It stretched every design vein in me, and I am glad to have been part of this amazing experience. Every lecture, every assignment, and every project showed how much there is to unlearn, learn, and relearn in this field.
